

Alastair Ross

The Challenges of a Remote Campus

Agenda

- Genesis and Evolution
- Present Day
- Challenges
 - Legislation
 - Accreditation
 - Estates
 - Records
 - Finance
 - Admissions
 - Student Experience
- Questions and Debate

Statistics

- 10% of all Postgraduates in the University
- 13% of all Taught Postgraduates
- 19% of University's Overseas Students
- 60% of Postgraduates in Pol/IR

Programmes of Study

- Politics
 - MA in International Relations
 - MA in International Conflict Analysis
 - MA in International Political Economy
 - MA in Political Strategy and Communication
 - MA in European Public Policy
 - MPhil/PhD in International Relations
 - MPhil/PhD in International Conflict Analysis
- Law
 - LLM in International Law with International Relations
 - LLM in International Economic Law
 - LLM in Public International Law
 - MPhil/PhD in International Law
- SSPSSR
 - MA in Migration Studies
 - MPhil/PhD in Migration Studies

Core Values

- Flexibility
- Inter-disciplinary
- Diversity
- Quality
- Location
- English

Student Recruitment

- Culture of PG Study
 - Strong Educational System
 - Access to Funding
-
- North America – 40%
 - EU 27 – 30%
 - Rest of World – 30%

Motivational Segments

Non-Europeans seeking a job in Europe after graduation. Keen on internships and job possibilities.

Europeans seeking a job in the EU Institutions or its associated policy ecosystem.

Trailing partners of Brussels-based policy makers, diplomats or business people.

Non-Europeans who want an EU experience but intend to return home after the degree.

Idealists seeking to change the world and “help people”. Looking to work in the NGO policy world and then export their knowledge and experience to the Third World.

Recent graduates looking for inspiration about future career possibilities as well as a transformative international educational experience;

Brussels-based practitioners looking to re-skill or enhance their CV; particularly from Nato and the EU institutions.

Future PhD students looking to lay the foundations of their academic career.

Recent graduates looking to travel in Europe and use the programme as cover.

Considerations

- Legislation
 - Taxation and Social Security costs
 - Staff Recruitment
 - Student Visas
- Accreditation
 - Bologna Process
- Estates
 - Health and Safety

Considerations

- Student Records
 - Data
 - Quality Assurance
 - Transcripts
- Finance
 - Income
 - Expenditure
 - Pay and Pensions
- Admissions
- Student Experience
 - Library Services
 - Disability Support

Registered Students

		2001/2	2002/3	2003/4	2004/5	2005/6	2006/7	2007/8	2008/9
PGT	FT	41	65	95	78	97	79	113	126
	PT	10	20	22	17	16	25	35	52
PGR	FT	-	-	1	1	2	3	3	5
	PT	11	11	9	7	9	7	13	8
Total		62	96	127	103	124	114	164	191