

Three Campuses – One University

Robert Dowling, Director of Academic Services,
University of Nottingham

16 April 2013

SROC Break Out Session

- Background
- Management Framework – Academic & Administrative
- Quality Assurance Issues
- Student Administration Issues
- Governance Issues

History of the Campuses

- University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus (UNMC) opened in 2000 in KL
- 2005, moved to Semenyih, 30km south of KL
- Joint venture with Boustead Holdings
- University of Nottingham Ningbo China (UNNC) opened in 2004
- Ningbo is a large seaport city across the Hangzhou Bay from Shanghai
- Joint Venture with Wanli Education Group

Statistics

- 4,360 students at UNMC
- 3,686 are UG, 397 PGT, 277 PGR
- 1,391 are non-Malaysian
- 5,257 students at UNNC
- 4,675 are UG, 484 PGT, 98 PGR
- 250 non-Chinese

Academic Management

- Nottingham Senate has academic authority
- Provision treated equally with regard to all committees
- Quality Manual applies to all campuses
- Nottingham schools are multi-campus
- Decision-making joint between schools and campus management

Administrative Management

- ‘Dotted line’ to service heads in Nottingham
- Chief Operating Officer appointment at UNNC
- Common processes and systems
- Visits/Video-conferencing/Skype
- International appointments

Student Administration Issues

- Systems Integration
- Student Mobility
- Same or different? – courses, modules, exams
- Time zones
- Staff recruitment: visas & skills

Quality Assurance Issues

- Multiple Regulators
- External Examiners
- Conduct of Exam Boards
- Appeals/Offences
- Representation: staff & students
- Reviews

Governance Issues

- Matrix Management
- Locus of Authority
- Aligning Structures
- Consequences of Growth?